

Learn BRIDGE for just $89 as part of a bold marketing test

The Grand Slam Bridge Centre wanted to see what impact price really had on the decision to start learning bridge. To test this we are offering places in the last beginners' course for 2023 for just $89, saving $221, on the one condition that you mention this ad when you book in.

The teacher is Paul Marston. His courses are fun because you learn by play not theory.

The fee covers everything: 4 lessons, 3 practice sessions, Paul's best-selling text, and a one-year membership - a total value of $310!

The lessons are 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm on Tuesday 14, 21, 28 November and 5 December.

This is the last course for 2023 so do not delay.
